

Sunflower Morning

Likening herself to a modern day Jane Eyre, Catherine Wickham arrives at Whycham Hall, where her aunt is housekeeper. Catherine is delighted to be spending the Easter vacation helping Aunt Em prepare the hall for its new owner, property developer Roderick Marchant. But she is horrified when she realises he is planning to alter the Whycham Estate beyond all recognition. Her passion intensifies when she is informed that she is a direct descendant of the original owners of Whycham Hall. And she resolves to stop Rods plans for good. But when she confronts Rod, sparks fly between them and her feelings for him complicates matters. Especially seeing as he already has a girlfriend the stuck-up and demanding Francesca. As she is forced to spend time more and more time in Rods company, Catherine is left with two choices: leave Whycham Hall forever or hide her love for Rod as she fights to save her beloved village from property developers. Does Rod feel the same way about Catherine? Can she persuade him to conserve Whycham Hall? Or will her dreams be shattered as her home and her man get further and further out of reach.?
