

A LEADER PROVIDES

A LEADER PROVIDES takes 200 years of U.S. Marine Corps strategy on developing leaders and combines it with long-term business experience, successful entrepreneurial knowledge and social intercourse, to the end of having any group to better get along and increase their survival potential through increased productivity. With everyone agreeing on the overall groups purpose, with high accord, and by having everyone pushing in the SAME direction, the levels of success that can be attained surpasses anything weve seen to date - in ANY economy. All of this takes a great leader to accomplish - the one person that all look up to, respect, seek guidance from, and would do anything for. A LEADER PROVIDES teaches anyone to become a great leader of others; whether their group were to be a family, a company or nation.
