

All We Know of Heaven (The PAX Series Book 4)

Their love was forged in fire. The PAX Series - Book 4. He would overwhelm a woman. Flynn knew that loving him and being loved by him would be an all-consuming passion. There would be no room for reason; there would be no halfway measures. He would demand everything from the woman he wanted, heart and soul and body.... You frighten me, she said, as the pulsing of her blood matched his. I'll never hurt you. She looked at this man whom she had watched reign supreme with nothing but the power in his two fists and she believed him. I trust you, she said softly, and that frightens me even more. Later, many people would say they were there when it happened. They would say it was as obvious as lightning across a summer sky and twice as electrifying. But, in truth, it was a small moment, a brief flicker of acknowledgment, of destiny, that left both Flynn and Jack shaken to their cores. PAX: Share the adventure! Playing for Time. Honeymoon. Hotel.
