

Sailing Solo

Sailing Solo Love isn't always plain sailing. Willa Davenport knows what she wants. She's thirty-two, single and determined to make her singles sailing holidays a successful part of her family's travel business. She doesn't usually mix business with pleasure but the attentions of three handsome men under the blazing Greek sun are enough to turn any girl's head. Should she keep things professional, or risk a little flirting and get what she wants into the bargain? She needs to negotiate a new deal with Greek hotel owner, Aristaios Nikolades. Advertising executive, Harry Banner Bullens skills could prove useful, and a five-star review from award-winning, travel writer, Mark Thornton would be a dream come true. Unbeknownst to Willa, the three men make a drunken wager to see which of them can get a date with her. Aristaios and Harry don't play fair but Mark is determined to win. He'll have to keep sex-mad pilates instructor, Blossom Appleyard and divorcee, Suki Thane at bay though, if he is to stand a chance of sailing off into the sunset with Willa. When Willa learns of the bet will she decide to play the men at their own game and teach them a lesson they won't forget, or will she just feel she's better off sailing solo?
