

Down in the Garden

An exquisite coffee table book this volume incorporates ingenious design and gardening wisdom to showcase Anne Geddes fanciful images. From pots to plots, in flowerboxes and fields, Geddes unique photos of babies and children show readers the profusion of life and joy to be found in a garden. Readers see the wondrous transformation of buds to blooms, and caterpillars to butterflies; find adorable baby faces amidst petals and pods; see birds in the bath, bees abuzz, and all kinds of critters at rest and play. Full-color throughout.
