

Red Velvet Rope

Play by Play Book 1 in the Red Velvet Rope series. Katherine Higgins is the no-nonsense owner of trendy Las Vegas casino Taboo, and she has a secret. Every night her fantasies are filled with visions of her bodyguard dominating her. Seth Kyoto is Katherine's no-nonsense bodyguard, and he too has a secret. Every night his fantasies are filled with visions of his boss submitting to him. From the moment Katherine hired Seth, their strong personalities clashed. Underneath their mutual animosity is a simmering attraction neither wants to acknowledge, but they can no longer ignore. And when someone threatens Katherine's life, Seth is forced to stay close to her, closer than either is comfortable with. While they're stuck together, two secrets will be revealed and every one of their fantasies fulfilled. But they each hold one last secret that, if it comes to light, could ultimately tear them apart.

Playtime is Over Book two in the Red Velvet Rope series. Sonya has been in love with Joshua for the past five years and for just as long he has taken her love for granted. When she confronts him about her needs and discovers he has no intention of pursuing a serious relationship with her, Sonya ends their affair. Playtime is over. Brokenhearted, Sonya sheds everything that reminds her of her life with Joshua. In the process she discovers the depths of her true nature and awakens inner sexual yearnings she never knew she possessed, as well as a painful past she thought long buried. Old hurts and dark secrets cloud Sonya's and Joshua's every interaction, threatening to tear them apart forever. But Joshua refuses to allow Sonya to walk away from him again. She has long held his heart, but now he willingly surrenders his body to her. Sexual dominant submitting to his submissive. It's something Joshua has never done for any woman, and never Sonya, but he's determined to do anything to win Sonya's love, no matter the
