To get her, hell have to be more than just the player hes always been. Shay Callahan is beautiful, determined, and intelligent. Shes got plans for her life, and they dont include getting sidetracked by a man, and certainly not her wealthy player boss. Her job at Club X is for one thing-money to fund her education-but if she can make Stefan March see hes not Gods gift to women, all the better. She never expects to find out theres more to him than meets the eye. As different as day and night, can these two see past who they think they are to find love?
