

Tossing the Caber (The Toss Trilogy) (Volume 1)

Former Army Ranger Logan Carmichael returns from nine years serving his country with an idea that could take him from the dilapidated farmhouse he calls home to the boardroom of his own corporation. All he needs is a chance. Instead, he finds an heiress. Elegant Diana Lennox wants to sell her father's business, but isn't sure an inexperienced entrepreneur like Logan can keep the company in the black and protect her employees' livelihood. So she decides to make him prove himself. Secure in her ability to outflank the competition and hold her own against corporate raiders, Diana doesn't realize that tangling with a man like Logan takes experience she has yet to acquire. When the light of battle in his eyes changes to desire, Diana is in trouble. Can she learn to play his game, or will Logan steal her company and her heart?
