

Cash (Hawthorne Brothers Romance)

LAUNCH DEAL: Get the book for $0.99 before it goes up to full price on 06/04! Cash Hawthorne knows what he wants, and it isn't the women who keep throwing themselves at him. Being a newly minted movie star is a pretty sweet gig, but it has a big drawback finding someone who wants the real him, not his fame and fortune. This Hawthorne brother just might have found his match in sassy college student Jenna Hughes... if only Jenna was interested. But Jenna's seen it all before and she's not about to fall for some Hollywood hottie. She may want love, but she knows what guys are like. A rich, famous movie star even one as drop-dead gorgeous as Cash can't be a good bet. Or can he? Cash is persistent, and every time he's near, the sizzle between them is impossible to ignore. Giving in is so easy, and feels so, so good... until Cash gets the call that could put an end to the fragile something they share. Could this be love the real thing? With his career on the line, Cash and Jenna have to choose: the opportunity for Cash to be a bona fide superstar, or giving their future a chance. This story features alternating POVs by chapter. This is a non-cliffhanger HEA and the second in a trilogy where each book focuses on a different Hawthorne brother. Each story is independent of the others, and they can be read in any order.
