

Devils Playground (Night Hunters Book 4)

She finally thought she was free. Dawn Garrett has been on the run from her past since the day she turned eighteen. A new name, a new life, and a new love have kept her safe from the one man who will stop at nothing to get her back. Together with Jase Byrnes, Dawn has stood up against werewolves, witches, vampires, and so much more. She's learned to be a hunter and with Jase by her side, she's finally found the strength she's been looking for. But the man she's spent so long running from is hot on her trail and Dawn is out of places to hide. She'll need to stand and face him, but she's trapped in his playground and he's got more tricks up his sleeve than she ever thought possible.
