

Dancing in the Kitchen

The ability to travel through time makes Wizard Alistair Holmes not just the average Joe everyone thinks he is. Determined to save the human race from extinction by stealing an ancient artifact, he has to enlist in the aid of Museum Curator Hannah Jessup. But Hannah has other ideas. Determined to escape her ho-hum existence and make her life matter, she decides to take things into her own hands. The trouble is, her quest for adventure could get both her and Alistair killed.
