

Delaware Weddings (Romancing America)

Choices from the past put three modern Delaware women's hearts in limbo today. Sadie gave up her daughter for adoption, and even though she thinks of her daily, will she accept the adoptive father's invite to visit? Kelly is struggling to raise three daughters alone, but how can she ask even the most gentle man to love her whole family? Zoey believes she has finally found the perfect man, but will he forgive the fact that her little cousin is really her illegitimate son? Can new romances in these women's lives open doors for forgiveness and love?
