

Desperate

You've got to trust somebody sometime, Carly. That's what people keep telling twenty-year-old Carly Ralston, but she doesn't have time to trust—she's too busy using her body and her wits to keep herself safe and fed. In fact, she hasn't trusted anyone since the murder of her mother four years ago. Now, some jerk named Patrick is trying to kill her, too. So when she meets the billionaire Dalton brothers, she's ready to run in the opposite direction. But they're offering a way out of this mess, with few strings attached, and she would be stupid to turn them down. Noah Dalton is definitely hard to resist, mostly because he's everything Carly ever wanted, but is he for real? Can she trust what he's saying, or is he just another rich guy, playing some sort of game? The answer might get her killed right after it crushes her battered heart.
