

The Stage: A Phoenix Rising Novel (Volume 1)

Mia, the saint. Kolton, the sinner. Kolton Royce is a tatted, bad boy rock star at the top of his game. Mia Phoenix is an overly responsible nineteen-year-old striving for stardom since losing her parents in a house fire. When Mia ends up on Koltons team for the debut of the new nationwide singing competition, The Stage, shes not sure if its her or her voice that hes hell-bent to control. After he takes special interest in her welfare, theyve been warned, any contact between them outside of filming is strictly forbidden. He has other ideas. Shes a phoenix rising from the ashes, the only one who understands the pain that lies beneath the persona. Though hes not sure if hes too bad for her, he cant stay away. All sinners have a past. All saints have a future. But does being born in fire make the fissures weak in all the wrong places, or stronger than theyve ever known? Warning: This book is intended for an adult audience 18 + due to adult content, language, and graphic scenes of a sexual nature. This is book one in a two book series. There is a preview at the end of The Stage called The Tour Preview. Read it at your own risk. This book does not end in a cliffhanger, but the preview does.
