

Drawing Me In: A New Zealand Secret Baby Second Chance Romance (Due South Series Book 7)

Passion wont hold them together when past fears threaten to tear them apartShes drawn by his wild spiritBree Findlows ordered world slides into chaos when the man who broke her heart arrives back in their small New Zealand home-town. But with years of avoidance tactics under her belt, she figures ignoring the sexy-as-sin artist whose touch colors her red hot, is a practical solution. Until her mother arrives with an announcement jeopardizing Brees livelihood, and her sister also shows upalong with the nine-year-old secret Bree has kept hidden from everyone. Especially the father of that secret.Hes drawn by her quiet strengthMaori oil artist Harley Komeke is back in Oban to rest, regroup and hopefully re-find his missing muse. He also isnt against rediscovering every inch of the icy-cool treat, Bree Findlowafter falling under her spell in what felt like a lifetime ago at Art College. His pursuit takes an unexpected turn when, hello, insta-fatherhood. Reeling from shock, Harley knows he should despise the woman who allowed her sister to informally adopt their son, but he cant. Because Bree, more than anyone, understands that with his past, he never, ever wanted to risk having a wife and family. Theyre drawn to each other over and overLike the formidable tides that surge around Stewart Island, Bree and Harley cant resist the heat generated between them. Push and pull, kiss and retreat, touch after breathless touchuntil a moments recklessness has consequences neither can brush aside. DRAWING ME IN is the seventh story in Tracey Alvarezs best-selling Due South books set against the stunning backdrop of Aotearoa, New Zealand.
