

The Right One (Friends) (Volume 4)

Rebecca Wallace has spent her whole life trying to impress her father. She spent her childhood bouncing between him and her alcoholic mother, never settling. Bored and stifled, she looks for ways to break free. A casual relationship with her next door neighbour becomes her dirty little secret. Elliot isn't like the boys Rebecca grew up with. He bounces from job to job, and is a part time musician. Her father's worst nightmare. Rebecca swore off getting too deeply involved. She's sick of secrets. Her last attempt at grown-up romance was blown apart by them, and Elliot has secrets of his own. Despite everything, could Elliot be the right one? Features characters from the previous book in the series, but is a stand alone. Warning This book may cause cravings for bacon.
