

GIFTS FIT FOR A KING

A short story about the wise men who journeyed from the east to see the newborn baby Jesus, and bring him three gifts. Following the star to Bethlehem they knock on the town Inn, assuming that's where He would be born. An hour later, they've knocked on nearly every room but haven't found the Messiah. They knock on the last door, which opens to a man in a long white robe, who wants to talk to them about the gifts they plan to bring...
