

Wandering Bear (Paranormal Werebear Shifter Romance)

The language of love is universal but what about when you don't even speak the local language? Bianca has been travelling for several months, enjoying her newfound freedom since graduating college, but she's starting to feel a little lonely. Europeans are more suspicious of shifters and whilst she's not overt about her nature, the young were-bear is missing the company of her own. He pointed to it. Luna, he breathed in my ear. My soul reverberated with the sound of his voice. Moon, I smiled. Moon, he spoke the word with awe. I swallowed back on the fear of losing myself so quickly to him. Luna, I whispered. Luna. He pulled me tighter, his breath warm against my neck. Then, as we watched the night sky, he started to kiss my skin softly, tenderly. He began against my cheek, then slowly nibbled down along my neck, sending chilling waves of passion flooding through my trembling body. His arms enveloped me, holding me close and warm...
