

All She Wanted (Letting Go Book 2)

A humorous, sweet romance based on the hope of a new beginning. Everything about Charlie Lexington is a second chance. Though she was rescued by a foster family at the age of five, her past is a lingering reminder of what she longs for most. After a series of less-than-stellar choices at her elite music school, her Performing Arts Scholarship now hangs by a thread. The suspension will not only force her to move home...it will cost her so much more than she ever expected. Briggs is the charming, yet all-too-mouthy fireman who is asked to keep an eye on the pretty little spitfire. He quickly learns, however, that his first assessment of her was wrong...she's tougher than she looks. When her stubborn resolve pushes his sanity and intercepts his heart, his loyalties are put to the test. Sometimes the hardest choice we make is the one we must make for love.Be sure to read book three in the Letting Go series, All Who Dream.
