

Romance: Hired for the Billionaires Pleasure

Can a billionaire buy anything he wants? After almost five years living and working in the city, country girl Tess is broke. When she receives her final bill, she admits it is time to return home to the country and her parents farm. She arrives for her last day at work with her good friend Kelli, but the city has one last hand to play. Can Tess handle what the city has left for her? This is a delicious contemporary romance short story with mature situations. Readers should be 18 plus!
