

Love Charm for Brenna (Short Story) (Love Charm Series Book 2)

Brenna knows exactly which guy she wants to win with her love charm. But her night at a masked Venetian ball offers up two intriguing men. Can she see beneath the disguises to her own true love, even if hes the unexpected one? Excerpt: Brenna moved away from Joe. Lets play a game, Joe. Our own masquerade game. Joe rocked back on his heels to skim his gaze over her. Will I get to see you naked in this game? Maybe. She grabbed his coat from where hed flung it over the chair. Hed put his black mask in his pocketah, there it was. She pulled it out. Put this on, Joe, so I can concentrate on yourbody. He groaned. Youre not blindfolding me, are you? Youll still be able to see. Youll be a stranger Im learning about. And what about you? Oh, the same. She took the other mask off the coffee table and slipped it over her head. Ill always know you, Brenna. I know your scent, your voice But you dont know my body. He opened his mouth to speak and she grabbed his hand and placed it on her exposed breast. His fingers tightened on her. Whatever hed planned to argue seemed to be forgotten. They stared at each other for a long moment, until Brenna knew she had to kiss him or die. Dont you want me, Joe? she whispered.
