

Pieces in Chance (A Chance Novel #1)

Drew Townsend has lived anything but a charmed life. When her mother died from cancer, her father snapped, using her as his own personal punching bag. After taking one too many beatings, she took things into her own hands. Determined to escape the nightmare she was living, a desperate Drew does the only thing she can think of to end it all. Jensen Marks, a former Marine and now police officer in the small town of Chance, had seen a lot of things in his years war, beatings, crying children yet none of it kept him up at night. So once he met Drew, hes perplexed by the way she got under his skin. After years of everyone turning their back on what was going on, Jensen takes it upon himself to see a change in her. Can Jensen help Drew pick up the missing pieces of herself or will he push her into losing yet another piece in Chance?
