

A Dose of Reality

In every perfect life, there comes a time for A Dose of Reality. Pharmaceutical Heiress Chloe Avalon has always had the best of everything. But then again, a perfect wardrobe, the swankiest address, glamorous parties and limitless trust funds are the norm when you live in the realm of the uber-rich. The only problem is that all of it has become a tad bittedious. But life starts to get a little too interesting when her brother, Luke, sends her an ancient relic and promptly vanishes. A mysterious voicemail from Lukes oldest friend (and Chloes girlhood crush) adds a new layer of intrigue. Then, on the eve of her 30th birthday, things really begin to fall apart. From Southampton to New York to a private island in the Caribbean, Chloe plunges into a dangerous race against an enemy she never expected and discovers there really are some things that money just cant buy.
