

Murder Most Royal: (Tudor Saga)

The fifth book in Jean Plaidys Tudor series telling the tragic stories of two Queens betrayed and beheaded - Katharine of Aragon and Anne Boleyn. At the decadent French court of King Francois, the young Anne Boleyn grows into an enigmatic and striking woman, a temptation to many courtiers. But whilst Annes ambitions are high, she has learned from her sisters unfortunate reputation. Unlike Mary, Anne refuses to become even a Kings mistress. So when Anne returns to the English court of Henry VIII, it is the King who is led a dance by this mysterious young beauty. Before long Henry is lured away from his stale marriage to Katharine of Aragon. But the new Queen Anne is not loved by the people, and it is only a matter of time before Henrys patience runs out...
