

Princes Proposition (The Exiled Royals Series Book 3)

After giving his all to the family bank, Prince Xavier never imagined hed be exiled for his workaholic ways. He learned early on that hard work was the only way to prove his worth, and now hell make it with or without his family. Hes determined to start a rival institution, but he needs help. When he runs into Paula Reynolds, he knows hes found what hes been looking for. Former finance whiz Paula left the banking world behind eight years ago with no plans to return. But since then, her charity fundraising hasnt gone as well as she hoped. She needs something that will bring big money to her events. The last thing she wants, though, is for that something to come in the form of the prince who broke her heart. Paula wants to refuse. He chose work over their relationship before, and she wont put herself in that position again. But Xavier is just the celebrity draw she needs to attract potential donors. If she agrees to help him get his bank off the ground, shell have to guard herself from repeating the mistakes of the past. Or can Xavier learn that there is more to life than work?
