

Private Affairs (The Private Serials Book 1)

When Lena Bellows suspects her husband of cheating it rocks her world, but also sends her life into a tailspin seven years in the making. Decisions must be made, plans need to be set in place, but she cant do it alone. Private investigator Preston Reid was hired to prove Lenas husband was being unfaithful, but she never expected the instantaneous and unrelenting attraction she felt upon meeting him. Shell need to rely on Preston to do his job without compromising her future, but they will both fight their constant and all-encompassing desire to be with each other. Only one thing is clear: No ones affairs are private anymore. This is the first volume in a multi-volume serial. Readers should not expect a resolution at the end of this publication. It is intended for mature readers. It is 28,000+ words.
