

Sound RIDER! @ 10 Years

2009 marked the 10th anniversary of what is today the longest running journal about riding motorcycles in the Pacific Northwest. Sound RIDER! @ 10 Years begins in 1999 in a small condominium in Seattle's Eastlake neighborhood. Over 10 years it blossoms into a full-fledged online magazine, event promotion entity, publishing company and online mercantile. Sound RIDER! publisher Tom Mehren walks the reader through his background as a child from the On Any Sunday era, later making the decision to turn a hobby into a full time job and the 10 years that follow. Tom Mehren is the founder of Sound RIDER!, has published six guides to motorcycling in the Pacific Northwest and penned the best-selling Packing Light/Packing Right guide to motorcycle packing. Today he lives in North Seattle and continues to publish Sound RIDER! while also running several events including the Rally in the Gorge, the Sasquatch Dual Sport and Road Trip tours and the Cafe to Cafe grand tour. The book reveals how each came to be.
