

Recruitment (Blood Badge Book 1)

Women are disappearing ... The supernatural community is in danger of being exposed to the human world ... Someone has to stop them ... Twenty-five year old Annie Bridges is totally unhappy with her mundane life. She has no romantic prospects, works in a dead-end job at a burger joint, and suffers excruciating migraines and blackouts. She also has an uncanny gift - or curse. She can read peoples emotions. In one day, everything changes her parentage, her job, her home, her car, her love life and her destiny as she is recruited into an elite security force staffed by some interesting characters, including Jared Remington, a handsome stranger who is mysteriously immune to her ability to read emotions.
