

Road Tripping

Road Tripping is a full-length, standalone romantic comedy. Readers can expect banter, emotion, sexual tension--plus a rather implausible plot. Also adult sexual content and language, so mature readers only, please. Ethan was Ashley's secret crush, until he became an asshole. Asshole is too good a word for him. It's bad enough that he stopped talking to her brother, who was his best friend since preschool. It's even worse that he went wild and got involved with criminal types. But the worst thing of all is the way he trapped her on this ridiculous road trip. That's what it is. Ridiculous. It just isn't normal for a girl to get dragged from Virginia to South Dakota in a stolen car with just $1000 in cash. With Ethan Moore, who is way too hot and way too infuriating to be tolerated. But she's stuck with him on a trip that is taking way longer than it should, sharing cheap hotel rooms, destroying cars, and eluding bad guys. Yep. There are bad guys chasing them. Even worse guys than Ethan, and that's saying a lot. Plus, she's having trouble keeping her hands off Ethan. In fact, she's falling for him hard when she isn't wanting to wring his neck. So, for two crazy weeks, her pride, her heart, and her life are all threatened. Ashley isn't sure which she'll lose first.
