Rife with action and passion, raved the Dallas Morning News about Linda Castillos gripping novels of romantic suspense. With FADE TO RED, this New York Times bestselling author delivers a romantic thriller full of dark secrets and even darker passions ... After a childhood betrayal and tragedy, Lindsey Metcalf made a vow always to protect her younger sister, Traci. Although the two women have drifted apart, Lindseys worst fears are triggered when Traci mysteriously disappears from her home in Seattle. After filing a missing persons report, she learns that her sister has been hiding a lurid double life. Having had her fair share of run-ins with the police, Traci isnt high on the departments list of priorities. And the only man able to help Lindsey find the truth has his own trouble with the law... Set to go to trial for a brutal assault charge, ex-cop Michael Striker plays by his own rules. Facing conviction and a possible prison term, hes got nothing left to lose--except his final two weeks of freedom. The last thing he needs is complications--and nothing about this case, or Lindsey Metcalf, is simple. Their search for the truth will plunge them into a seedy world darker than they ever imagined--a seductive trap waiting for its next victim.
