Thats how Sadie has always felt. She tries to fit in, but there is just something there...different than what everyone else seems to be. Then one day fate takes her life into its hands and changes everything. Out of the blue she loses her job, her boyfriend leaves and she starts having these really vivid dreams about a guy shes never met. The world Sadie has known her whole life is about to change, but is she brave enough to take a leap of faith and change with it? Can she accept the things shes about to learn and let this intriguing dream man lead her through this magical new world? Is she really ready to let herself believe and find love? Only time will tell.....but what if you had Forever? Book Two: Royal Blood What if everything you thought was true, suddenly wasnt? Sadie always knew she was different...but magical? She has recently found out that her mother was really the Queen of all Magicals, which leaves Sadie with more questions than answers. Thankfully she has Sebastian, an amazing, handsome Mandurago (aka Vampire) that shes quickly finding herself falling in love with. Life is changing in remarkable ways, until the day Sadie finds out that her mother had promised her to another. When it comes to Lars Dracco, he will do anything, at any cost, to steal her away from Sebastian. Learning about her new powers, falling in love the first time and embracing her new life is a huge challenge.

One she's up for, with a little help from her friends, but what happens when she finally meets the man she's promised to? Could she love yet another or will her love for Sebastian hold strong? Book Three: Seeking Sebastian Sadie loves Sebastian. Deep down she's felt it since he first materialized to her in a dream. Pulled together by fate, their instant connection has entangled their lives together and changed them both forever. After being openly threatened by Lars Dracco, Sadie and Sebastian decide to drop everything and hurry to the Mandurago capitol to get bound in the Mandurago (aka Vampire) tradition. The binding ceremony is the Mandurago way of making their love officially known.. but will Lars get to her before they can have their special moment?

Book Four: The Ties That Bind - Spicy Edition After many close calls with the Dracco clan, Sadie and Sebastian find themselves in the Mandurago capitol. Sadie was hoping it would be their safe haven before their binding ceremony, unfortunately that is not coming together out quite as they had planned. After a strange turn of events, she learns someone close to her isn't who they seem to be. Separated from Sebastian and unable to contact him, she is frightened for her life and her future. She needs to call on her Royal powers to get away from her captors, but how can she when she doesn't know how to use them? Wanting Sebastian is Sadie's one-true happy ever after, but will she get it?
