

Frontier Inferno (Calendar Men Book 4)

Calendar Men - Mr. April For Heather, Castle, Alaska offers many surprises. A new job as a nanny of all things a handsome firefighter whose charisma proves a distraction from her plans, and the danger of discovery. Heather may have to hightail it out of Castle and into the wilderness, or risk being dragged back into the very situation she fled. Romance takes a backseat for single dad Chris Elder, while he focuses on his young son and his job as a firefighter/smokejumper in the small community of Castle. But the arrival of the feisty woman from the lower forty-eight may prove more than his resolutions, or his libido, can handle. Can the magic of Alaska save these two from a lonely future, or will circumstances force them to step back from their Frontier Inferno?
