

Snow Raven

Embittered after his beloved wife's death at the hands of his sworn enemy, Ranald Lindsay, the Highland laird called The Wolf of Badanloch, is hungry for vengeance. When chance puts him face to face with the woman betrothed to his enemy, he kidnaps her, intending to force a confrontation with his English rival. The Pawn of Two Powerful Men But Only One Can Claim Her Heart With her blazing red hair and daring wit, Meredith Tanner both infuriates and challenges her brooding captor. Undaunted by his anger, Merry turns Ranald's dark and dreary keep into a cheerful and orderly household, winning his clansmen to her cause even as she tries his patience again and again. The mutual desire Ranald and Merry feel only complicates matters as courtly intrigue and turmoil erupt between Scottish and English rivals, border lords and royals alike. Snow Raven flies from the windswept Highlands to the deadly intrigues of England's Tudor Court, with a passionate cast of characters leading the charge.
