

One Last Chance

The last place Claire Woodward wants to be is standing on the dock, waiting to embark on a cruise to celebrate her ten year high school reunion. Her high school career was a disaster and her life following graduation didnt improvedivorced, recently fired from her job and no prospects on either front. But shes reluctantly talked herself into going, hoping maybe it can jumpstart her life in the right direction. And given that shes checked the RSVP list obsessively and knows with certainty that Griffin Benson wont be on the cruise, she figures she can live through it. Griffin Benson has one regret in his lifebreaking up with Claire Woodward before their senior Prom. Its haunted him for the last decade and hes been waiting ten years to apologize. When he sees that shell be on their high school reunion cruise, he thinks the time has finally arrived to say hes sorry and to maybe pick up where they left off. He waits until the last moment to sign up, making sure shell be on that ship. When Claire arrives for the start of the trip, her bad luck continuesthe cruise line has mishandled her reservation and shes without a room on a sold-out cruise. Theres only one empty bed on the vesseland it just happens to be in Griffin Bensons room, which hes more than happy to let her have. Reluctantly, Claire agrees to the arrangement and is immediately torn by her reunion with Griffindoes she hold steady to her vow that she wont let him break her heart again? Or does she forgive him and rekindle the spark that is so clearly still there? Should she give Griffin one last chance?
