

Wanting (PAVAD: FBI Romantic Suspense Book 2)

Carrie Sparks was phenomenal at her job as a special agent with the Complex Crimes Unit of the FBI's PAVAD directorate, despite being on the autistic spectrum. Just because Team Leader Sebastian Lorcan first met her at the lowest point in her career didn't change that fact. One thing was very clear though, he didn't like her any more than she liked him. And she was fine with that. Lorcan always watched her, judging every move she made. And Carrie knew she always came up short with him. So if they had a mutual dislike agreement, why was the man at her door late one night? Lorcan needed help finding a friend's missing daughter, and with his team out of town on a case, Carrie Sparks was the only resource he had. A little girl was missing, one who needed them both... Carrie agreed to help him because she saw herself in the young runaway. But while they're searching for Ashleigh, someone else is searching for Carrie...
