

Star Crossed (Hollywood Heat Book 1)

When Hollywood's sexiest secret explodes, stars are born. Music mogul Kate Garrison's husband is a leading Hollywood director. He also happens to be a cheat. When he's caught having an affair with an actress, Kate becomes the talk of the town and not in a good way. So when she stumbles into Hollywood's new golden boy, Chris Cavanaugh in the men's room, of all places the gossip mill starts working overtime. Especially since Chris is starring in her husband's next film. Chris Cavanaugh couldn't imagine a woman would have such an effect on his life. But amid the gossip and Hollywood politics, his only option is to ride out the media storm and play house. He never expects to actually fall for her, but when illusion begins to look more and more like reality, Chris has his hands full keeping his career intact and his eye on the target of making the Hollywood A-list. So why does spending time with Kate suddenly seem more important?
