Terra is a photographer fresh out of college, and fresh out of a long term relationship. She gets her first big break when she gets the chance to photograph Kyle Walker for the magazine she works for. Kyle Walker is a strong, sexy, billionaire businessman who engages in very provocative extracurricular activities. Terra gets more than she bargains for when he invites her to his hotel room, and offers her a deal that is impossible for her to resist. Terra's only problem is keeping her relationship with Kyle Walker strictly business.
