

Springs Break (Seasonal Work Book 2)

The Rayne sisters have just lost their father, but instead of the financial security they had always had, they found they had been steadily running them farther and farther into debt. In the hopes of earning enough to pay the off his bills and still keep the family house, the sisters go out looking for work with a large income in a short amount time. Spring asks a family friend to give her work among his many companies. He sends her to orangutan reserve to take care of two orphaned toddlers, then he calls a cousin to watch over her. A cousin that will take Spring over his knee to make sure she is well taken care of.
