

Reclaiming Brynn: inspirational romance (Heart of the City Book 1)

A decade has changed them both, but Brynn never forgot the first man who broke her heart. The last person Dr. Brynn Harper wants involved in her work with an at-risk teen is Garrett Davis, her first love. His bad choices in high school cost her everything. If Garrett is going to be involved with helping the teen, Brynn wants no part of it. But she can't say no when she knows Nicole needs the support she'll find at Hope Springs Ranch. Clean and sober for ten years, Garrett Davis runs Hope Springs Ranch, a drug rehabilitation center. He knows better than anyone else that no matter how many people he helps, it can't change the consequences of his poor choices. But he's left all that in God's hands. Until treating an at-risk teen brings him face-to-face with his greatest regret. With two hearts on the line, only love can fix the unfixable.
