

From a Distance

One woman, two brothers, and the man whose dark obsession threatens to destroy them all Ruth Bellalfontaine fled her home and married a man she didnt love to escape the stunning betrayal of the woman who should have loved her best and the clutches of the man who will stop at nothing to possess her. Deep in the jungles of Africa, she immerses herself in the work of her new husbands family, the study of the mountain gorilla. But will distance be enough to keep her safe? In a country where survival depends on animal instinct, can she forge a future with Malone Corday, even as all her instincts pull her toward his brother? Brett Corday gave up his eye for his brother. What is he willing to sacrifice for his brothers wife? Carrying the weight of his brother, the reputation of the Corday Foundation and his love for a forbidden woman on his shoulders, Brett seeks peace by holding up in his compound doing language studies with the orphaned gorilla, Cee Cee. But a devils bargain with his brother, a stunning betrayal, and a bloodbath in the Virungas forces him to examine everything hed held to be true. Follow Ruth and Brett on a stunning journey through the dark continent to the savage beauty of a place that can break your heart and then put it back together.
