

The Best of The Railway Magazine Volume 2

In an unparalleled publishing history spanning 116 years, The Railway Magazine has produced more than 1,350 issues covering almost every topic imaginable on railways. The Best of The Railway Magazine Volume Two is a selection of features and news stories that were first published during a 100-year run from 1897, presented in a redesigned style along with many new photographs and illustrations. Volume Two, compiled by Chris Milner, deputy editor of The Railway Magazine is a further selection of reprints of previously published features that cover a wide range of subjects, both British and foreign, but are presented in a revised style and in many cases with a previously unpublished photograph. Features include: Too little, too light and too late - the story of the BR railbuses The Tralee and Single Railway McIntosh locomotives of the Caledonian Railway The Hiwatha and its locomotives This Best of will appeal to a wide range of readers and provides a fascinating snapshot into our illustrious railway history. This eBook may not contain every illustration used in our print or digital replica editions.
