

The Changed Life (Classic Reprint)

Excerpt from The Changed Life
Last autumn, in a book-shop in California, the author found a little book with his name upon the title-page - a book which he did not know existed; which he never wrote; nor baptized with the title which it bore. This stray publication - taken from shorthand notes of a spoken Address - he does not grudge. Already, it seems, it has done its small measure of good. But, owing to the imperfections which it contains, it has been thought right to issue a more complete edition. The theme, like its predecessors in this series, represents but a single aspect of its great subject - the man-ward side. The light and shade is apportioned with this in view. And the readers kind attention is asked to this limitation, lest he wonder at points being left in shadow which theology has always, and rightly, taught us to emphasize. It was the hearing of a simple talk by a friend to some plain people in a Highland deer-forest which first called the authors attention to the practicalness of this solution of the cardinal problem of Christian experience. What follows owes a large debt to that Sunday morning..About the Publisher
