Reviews for RedemptionARC ReviewOMG is all I can say about Redemption ... I couldn't put it down!! It is very hard to do this review right now because all of my emotions are in high gear!! In the last 13 hours I have cried, laughed, cried some more & laughed some more. I have actually felt the emotions coming from Tavern! I have definitely read books with very strong women but this Bird has got them ALL beat!! There is really no way that as a female you can't identify with her! As for Preacher well what can I say ... gotta love that man, even when you wanna smack him! Melanie Walker has done such an incredible job bringing all of these characters into 1 story that you can't even pick a favorite one! I am so looking forward to the next book that I am sitting on pins & needles !!! Priest turned Vampire, Preacher Mac O'Conner has suffered heartache of the worst kind in his long life. After years of longing for his wife and children who died years ago, Preacher comes face to face with another dead woman from his past. The three fallen angels called The Cado are sending a message, one Preacher refuses to heed. Tavern Madley was collateral damage. After an abduction forced her into a drug called Bliss Tavern is left dead on the floor, her life was the price for another's freedom. When she wakes months later remembering nothing, Tavern ends up wandering the streets of Seattle looking for the drug that destroyed her life with nothing more than a hazy message from a man named Darcallion. Preacher was not prepared for the girl, desperate and in withdrawals on the floor. He never thought he would see her again, knowing her life was the cost for his. He is now faced with a second chance at love and redemption. Tavern just needs the effects of the drug eased and offers an agreement to Preacher. Sleep with me and Ill keep things casual. She never meant to fall in love with the one man incapable of returning it. The Cado send the final message to Preacher and the one Nex that stole everything from him is back, and now he wants Tavern too. Preacher will have to learn to fight for the woman he has fallen in love with and also sworn to protect. He will say goodbye to his past, swear his love for a future and make promises he swore he could never make again. But he has never known love like this and like before, it will have a cost
