

Keltor: The Guardian Archives

Angels do not have wings. But they do have fangs and some curse like sailors. The Guardians, a once Mortal group of warriors, exist to hunt the Shadow Demons in our forgotten world. Their bloodline allows them at the time of their death to rise and fight in the war that rages all around, unseen by human eyes. For over a thousand years, Keltor, one of the oldest warriors, has fought after losing everything he loved at the hands of a Demon. He has taken no comfort except in his vengeance against the beings that stole his heart and life. Then one day, it begins to pound in his chest again when he sees her, the Keeper. Elizabeth is a human that suddenly begins to see things that shouldn't exist. The story that she couldn't write is now right in front of her eyes, literally. As is a breathtakingly gorgeous, leather clad warrior with a heavy brogue that is completely off limits per the laws of the new world she is thrust into. She is a Keeper, a balance between the light and dark who has within her the power to tilt the scales one way or another in this war with her choices. Somehow she made it thirty years in this world hidden from both sides. An epic struggle for her soul begins as she learns who she is and tries to accept that it's the Keepers pull attracting her to Keltor, nothing more. A warrior that lost his heart long ago, a woman that has never really known her own. Each Guardian only gets one Mate and when they are found, there is nothing in the Seven Hells or the Heavens that could keep them apart. Is it the magic of the Keepers soul, or is she His?
