

The Hunters: Books 3 & 4

You want a fairy tale prince. Im the monster from the fairy tale. Book 3 Lori isnt looking for a prince and sexy werewolf Jonathan isnt a monster. Very often he can be pigheaded and he has more than his share of personal demons. But a monster? Not quite. Of course, Lori, the local healer, knows hes not going to believe that. He looks at himself and sees that monster from a fairy tale. He looks at her and sees somebody sweet and innocent. When an attack on the local band of Hunters drive them together, Jonathan can feel his control shattering. Hes unable to keep his hands off the woman hes wanted for so long, but at the same time, he knows he doesnt deserve her. Lori has her hands full, toodealing with their enemies, dealing with him, dealing with his demonstrying to convince him to give their love a chance. Before its too late. Before both of them lose everything Book 4 Kit will want what she wants Truer words were never spoken. The sleek, sexy shapeshifter knows what she wants. She wants Byron, the Master vampire she swore to serve. Too bad he doesnt want heror does he? Byron wants her, all right. But he made a promise to care for her. Caring for her doesnt involve doing all the dirty, delicious things he imagines doing. Determined to keep his promise, he sends her away. But Kit will want what she wantsand what she wants is him
