

The Score (The Russian Guns Book 3)

In the mess of love and life, nothing and no one is left untouched. After everything the Russian mob boss Anton Avdonin has done to keep his family safe from the dangers of the world surrounding them, he never thought it would come down to this. The officials are knocking, the charges are piling, his wife is hurting, and they're facing a fate he never thought to consider. He didn't just make one mistake no, he made many. Its time to answer for them all.

Viviana Vine Avdonin is stuck watching the life she adores crumble around her. Bad decisions have led to terrible consequences in more ways than one. She doesn't have time to recover from one devastating tragedy that leaves her shattered before the next one is crushing down, too. Saving her husband from a life sentence might be the easiest thing she has to do when her own misdeeds are staring her in the face. Together, Anton and Viviana have survived more than once, but this path will be by far, the hardest they've ever walked. Sometimes they have to walk it alone because forgiveness isn't always black and white and love can be blurred by pain. With the blissful ignorance gone and the blinders removed, how much of themselves will they have to sacrifice to come out on top one last time? When everyone has a score to settle, it's hard to notice the person causing the most heartache is the one staring back in the mirror. Final installment to The Russian Guns Sequel to The Life Please Note: The Score is not a standalone title. The first books in The Russian Guns series (The Arrangement, followed by The Life) should be read first. This novel is intended for adults. Explicit sexual encounters and scenes of violence.
