

Keys to Heaven (The Purgatory Series Book 1)

Born to a fallen angel and a demon, Heavenleigh Spirit has never truly fit in. Shunned, tested, and ridiculed, she's hardened her heart, building a wall around her none are allowed to scale. Carving a life for herself running the neutral bar, Purgatory, she caters to all things winged, clawed, and other. Provided they play nice. When she breaks her middle of the road stance to rescue a newly fallen angel she gets more than she bargained for. The amnesic angel awakes in the bed of the only woman he's ever lusted after with nothing more than the knowledge he was sent to protect her. Struggling to remember who he is, and why she's in danger, he fully embraces the passion between them that blazes hotter than hell fire. When the truth about his mission comes out he must fight to convince her the love they share is real, and he's not going anywhere. In an ironic twist of fate the woman cast aside for a birthright she never asked for holds the keys to the world's ruin or salvation.
