

The Love Story (The Things We Cant Change) (Volume 4)

Evie and Zeke have healed so they think. But with the start of the school year comes new challenges and new problems. They have bared their souls, found a connection, and worked on their problems. They have come to terms with their grief and are learning to move on and still go on with life, even though its without two of the people they loved the most. And yet with one kiss, everything changes yet again and they learn that their healing isnt quite complete. Not only do they have to return to school, face down the rumors and the peer pressure and old and new friends, but they have to learn about love. Evie and Zeke have healed but now they must learn how to love with their healed hearts.
