

TROUBLE (New Adult Romance)

They made being bad look damn good This full-length romance weaves together a story of love, triumph, and perseverance spanning decadestold from the unique perspective of two broken people trying to put their lives together again... Venus Cartera young woman in an unhappy marriage is no stranger to hardship. But two untamed brothers with a reputation that stretches past the bounds of their small Washington town are about to shake up her perfect facade in a way she never saw coming Anders Orsenan Afghan vet with a score to settle has been taking life by the throat with his younger brother Liam by his side for as far back as he can remember. But even the most hardened person can only take so much tragedy. Three months out of prison for a crime of vengeance Anders is just trying to find his footing in the real world again. But how long can you run from your past when it surrounds you? Please beware that while no cheating will take place between any of the main characters in this novel part of the story arch will explore an interesting love triangle dynamic. A HEA is guaranteed.
