Otherworldly to-do list: 1. Save mage. 2. Fall in love. 3. Avoid certain death.

Lonely accountant Natalie Clark dreams of another life. Her favorite fantasy romance novel, Magical Acts, offers escape from the mundane. She's re-read the story a hundred times, longing for a man who doesn't exist: Auron Tarlett, the mage of Barrows Flat. When she's given a strange skeleton key from a woman who runs an occult shop, Natalie can't resist seeing what it unlocks. Then she finds herself thrust into a world that shouldn't exist--and into the arms of a man who supposed to be fictional. Mage Auron Tarlett has waited a lifetime for the prophesied woman who can save him and finally break his curse. When Natalie finds her way to his castle in Barrows Flat, he believes she's the one who will free him. Her strength, intelligence, beauty and lush curves stir him in a way no female ever has, and he knows he's found his true mate.

Together they can defeat the enemies of the Barrows and nullify the dark magic that threatens the Tarlett family. Only one problem remains: If they are successful in banishing evil from Barrows Flat, Natalie will return to her world--and leave Auron alone in his.
